

2025 Hailey “Days of the Old West” Court Guidelines Revised June 3, 2024 Hailey “Days of the Old West” Rodeo Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior).

Hailey “Days of the Old West” Rodeo Royalty (Hailey Royalty) is a public relations group. Their responsibilities are large, and with this in mind, the Court is expected to follow the guidelines listed below.

For Pageant and Reigning Year Rules, refer to the Miss Rodeo Idaho Pageant Rulebook. If there are any questions, contact a Hailey Queen Coordinator.~

1. Appearance and good grooming are top priority. This includes such details as attitude, tone of voice, and the "look" you offer in public--you are our rodeo image. Professionalism is paramount.
2. The Court is to be poised, but not “stuffy” and above all, friendly. For example, introduce yourself to other courts when attending luncheons, parades, etc. You are the example or mentors of all others. You are Hailey Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior) of the community. As such, when on Court travel, the focus will be upon Court duties. Cell Phone use is to be limited.
3. If you have a significant other, your contact with them will be discrete, and you will not engage in any public displays of affection that would be inconsistent with the high standards and ideals of the Hailey Royalty Coordinators, Sawtooth Rangers and Committee. Significant others may accompany court members and/or their families during related functions, but must be discreet. This includes travel to and from functions, as well as during these functions.
4. Promptness - You are expected to be at the meeting point on time, not five minutes late. It is a good idea to allow 15 to 20 minutes extra time for unexpected delays when leaving home for appointments.
5. All invitations requesting, “RSVP” will be answered promptly.
6. All parties and gifts will be acknowledged with a personal thank you note from each member of the court (and parents) within one week following the event.
7. Horses and equipment are expected to be properly maintained and cleaned for each function. The Court members and parents will agree to follow the defined “Horse Grooming” standard. This usually means washing the horse before each function. All horses will be clipped in general uniform presentation.
8. All provided outfits will need to be maintained in clean, ready to go condition. Some of the summer outfits may be hand-washed in cold water. Check with Coordinators on clothes care. If items are lost or not maintained, replacements will be at the expense of the Court member and her family.

9. Court functions generally are scheduled well in advance. Occasionally, you will be asked to make a change or appear on short notice. This will require flexibility on your part to meet the needs of the Hailey Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior) Agreements.

10. Parents must be at all times supportive of the Hailey Royalty Coordinator and Sawtooth Rangers and committee, Court members, the Coordinators. Any opinions on the Court should be expressed in good taste and at a time that won't interfere with the execution of court duties. Any parents who persistently cause problems in court matters will be putting their daughter's position on the court in jeopardy. The parents and families traveling with the Hailey Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior) Agreements to activities will be viewed as part of the entire team by the public and should attempt to present a consistent image of our legendary and historic organization.

11. Any controlled substance is cause for dismissal from the court. Behavior conditions that prevent a court member from fulfilling the expectations and duties of the court, or that detract from the expectations of the court will also be cause for dismissal from the court.

12. Tongue rings or other body piercing (besides normal ear piercing) and visible tattoos will not be allowed. Only jewelry designated by the Chaperone or Director will be allowed.

13. Make sure everyone stays together as a court. Use the buddy system, always at least two girls together, even to go to the restroom, to go back through a buffet line, or walking around at any function, etc.

You understand and agree that if you are removed as a member of the Court, then you will lose all of the rights, privileges, and Hailey Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior) Prizes Sawtooth Rangers property associated with that honor. The Hailey Royalty Coordinators, Sawtooth Rangers Directors and committee, the Hailey Royalty Pageant, the Hailey “Days of the Old West” Rodeo and and its activities will be my #1 priority. My family knows the financial responsibilities of this year and it will cost them numerous allotments of their time to support all Hailey Royalty (Queen, Teen, Junior) activities from the many parades to social functions. My family knows that they must provide horses or arrange broken, reliable horses that fit my riding abilities for my appearances.
